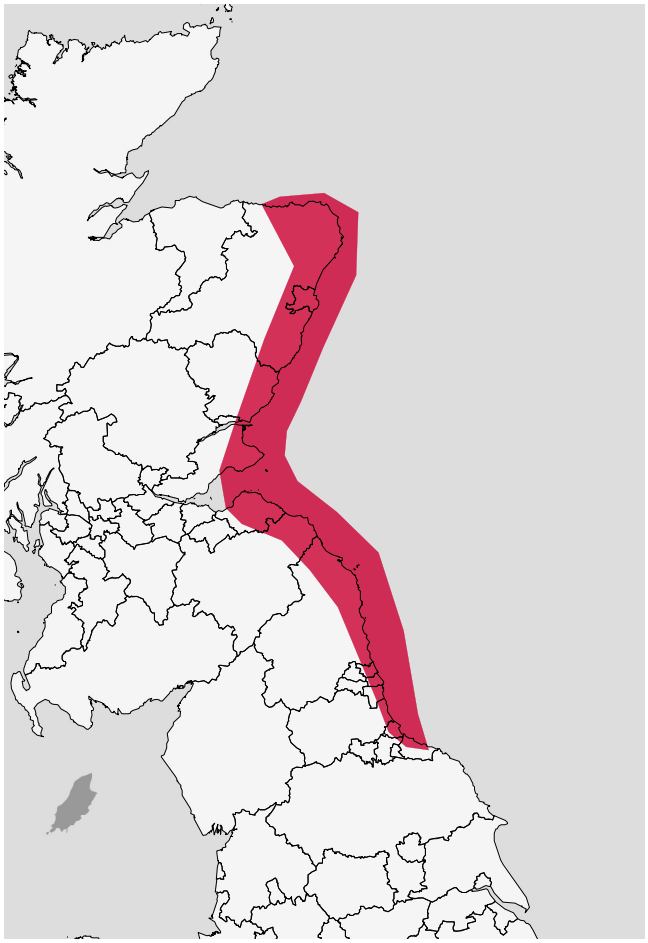
Red warning
Wind

Between
15:00 Fri 26 Nov 2021 and
02:00 Sat 27 Nov 2021



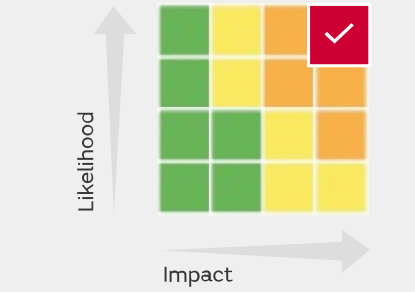
High winds associated with Storm Arwen will bring damage and travel disruption.

What to expect

- Flying debris resulting in danger to life
- Damage to buildings and homes, with roofs blown off and power lines brought down
- Roads, bridges and railway lines closed, with delays and cancellations to bus, train, ferry services and flights
- Power cuts affecting other services, such as mobile phone coverage
- Large waves and beach material being thrown onto coastal roads, sea fronts and homes

Further details

A spell of exceptionally strong northerly winds will affect eastern coastal districts of Scotland from later this afternoon moving south into south-east Scotland and north-east England this evening. Gusts of 80-90 mph are likely and these will generate some very large waves.



High likelihood of high impacts
